*Greeting

(Psalm 78:1-4)

Listen, O my people, to God's teaching;

We will lend our ears to the words of God's mouth.

Things that we have heard and known,

Things that our forbears have told us.

We will not hide them from our children;

We will tell the coming generations

All the glorious deeds of the Lord;

We will tell of the might of the Lord, and the wonders God has wrought.

*Hymn # 127

Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah

*Opening Prayer

Almighty God, in a world of change you placed eternity in our hearts and gave us power to discern good from evil. Grant us sincerity, that we may persistently seek the things that endure, refusing those which perish, and that, amid things vanishing and deceptive, we may see the truth steadily, follow the light faithfully, and grow ever richer in that love which is the life of all people; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Children's Time

(Children in Kindergarten-3rd grade will leave for Children's Church.)

PROCLAIMING AND RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD

Prayer for Illumination

Lord, open our hearts and minds to the power of the scriptures; silence in us any voice but your own, and grant us grace to embrace and to do what you say to us today; through Jesus Christ your Living Word we pray. Amen.

Thanksgiving Sunday Book Tables-For the past two years, Centenarians have exceeded all expectations and shared the joy of reading with the students at Oaks Road Academy. We brought well over 500 books both years, for the children to choose and take home to read. It has been an exciting project for everyone involved! This year, we are asking you to bring books again on Thanksgiving Sunday, November 18, to place on the tables that will surround the altar rail at all three services. Please bring books that are appropriate for children ages 5-11 years old and place them on the tables when you come to church on the 18th. The books will be delivered to Oaks Road where the children will be able to choose the book that interests them the most.

The flowers on the altar this morning are given to the glory of God and in appreciation for the service of all our veterans.

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love. Where there is injury, thy pardon, Lord. Where there is doubt, let there be faith. Oh, Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. Where there's despair let me bring hope. Where there is darkness, let there be light, Where there is sadness, let there be joy. O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console. To be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. Oh, Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love. For it is in giving that we receive, and it is in pardoning that we are pardoned. And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life, to eternal life. Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace. An instrument of thy peace. Amen.

*Presentation of the Offerings with the Doxology # 94

*Prayer of Thanksgiving

O God, most merciful and gracious, of those bounty we have all received, accept this offering of your people. Remember in your love those who have brought it and those for whom it is given, and so follow it with your blessing that it may promote peace and goodwill among all peoples, and advance the kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.
